

NGCAF Protests attacks on Minority

National Girl Child Advocacy Forum (NGCAF) has strongly protested the attacks on the Hindu minority in the country following the January 5 general election. Forum denounced the attacks through human chain in front of National Museum, Shahbagh, Dhaka on 8th

January 2014.

NGCAF Secretary Nasima Akhter Jolly said the Girl children and Women are mostly victim through this incident which is unacceptable in Independent Bangladesh. She added, we are stunned by the barbaric severity of the attacks carried out by miscreants particularly in Jessore where women and children had to cross the river to save their lives.

She Calls for progressive forciers to stand united against such violence. She demands a neutral and acceptable inquiry into the attacks.

